Accommodations

As you step from the dock to the swim platform of this very well maintained vessel, you'll notice the clean and tidy condition of the exterior. Step up and through the transom door onto the ample back deck area. To port is the ladder to the upper helm station with lots of seating and storage with a fully enclosed helm. The mast will fold down for the lower bridges you may encounter. Back down on the back deck, moving forward through the sliding rear door you will enter the main salon. To the starboard is a very comfortable recliner and a fridge/freezer. To the port is a TV above a storage area and generator gauges. Just forward of that is an L-shaped dining area with a beautiful folding table. Moving forward you will find the galley to the port side and the lower helm to the starboard side. Moving forward and down a couple steps you will find the second stateroom to the port and the head with a separate stall shower to starboard. And one more move forward you will find the main stateroom with it's centerline Queen bed and lots of storage.
