Description

This craft is laid-up in white and Navy-blue gelcoat. The bottom paint is black; the boot and fashion stripes are white and gold. The canvas is Navy blue and the upholstery is white.

Below deck the sole is teak and holly. The forward berth is to starboard with a hanging locker and seat across to port. Aft to port is the galley with under-counter refrigerator, built-in microwave oven, sink and range. The private head with shower and sink is further aft to port.

Across to starboard is the convertible dinette with drop table, filler cushion and storage underneath.

Up three steps to the cockpit with helm to starboard. To port is a removable forward seat with a full seat with storage underneath. Aft in the cockpit is a hide-away bench seat, transom door, an in sole fish box and live well. The helm console is hinged and rises electrically for engine and generator access. The transom door is aft to starboard for swim platform access.

The foredeck has a center deck escape hatch, a molded bow pulpit with anchor, windlass and a full welded bow rail that extends aft on both sides. The windshield has an opening center section and two wipers with washers.
