Directly across on STBD you will find a large flat screen TV above two plentiful refrigerators and countertop for all your entertainment needs. A loveseat follows the line on STBD leading to the helm double chair all which are covered in the rich pleather pleasing to the sight and touch. A long sofa and table on PORT face the love seat and helm which features Raymarine electronics. This is a great place to enjoy the social spaces as well as the retractable roof.

Stepping down below deck are the two staterooms and a linen closet to STBD with plenty of room to service both heads and cabins. A left turn takes you to the full beam main cabin which is mid-ship and boasts all the expected details you have come to expect of Sea Ray. Plenty of discreet storage, a large flat screen TV and a sound bar face queen bed. The head features a vessel sink and an ample vanity facing a roomy stand up shower.
