Summary/Description

The 68S may technically be a hardtop, but you wouldn't know it because of the enormous sun roof that slides open to give you over 60 square feet of sky view.

3 Stateroom/ 4 Head Layout + Crew

The 68S may technically be a hardtop, but you wouldn't know it because of the enormous sun roof that slides open to give you over 60 square feet of sky view. The 68S not only performs incredibly, but it also commands attention with its stylish bright red hull. The interior decor was clearly designed to catch the eye. Fashionably cool with cheerful upholstery, funky use of glass, and a minimalist use of light. It's impossible not to be impressed with the Azimut 68S.
