This Aicon 64' features a euro transom just above the waterline; the aft deck is accessed from port or starboard. Crew quarters accessed centerline. Once, onto the aft deck, you'll notice the large teak dining table and newly upholstered bench seating.

The main salon is accessible through Aicon's curved glass stainless steel framed sliding doors a sign of the quality craftsmanship you'll find throughout this yacht.

The large sweeping windows furnish the salon with excellent views of the water and sunlight. Stepping up one level to the dining and galley area. Teak table, fixed leather seating, and moveable chairs.

Positioned to starboard is one of the finest galleys available on any yacht of this size. Located perfectly to deliver the finest views onboard while making good use of the Island prep area, stainless steel countertops, and built-in dishwasher for easy cleanup. Side decks are quickly accessed through the galley electric starboard side deck door. The lower helm is located forward to port and positioned for excellent visibility while cruising indoors from custom twin leather captain's chairs.

Centerline, down four steps, leads to the VIP stateroom boasting 7ft of headroom, a queen-sized berth, plenty of storage, and en-suite head. Moving aft and to starboard the guest stateroom dual single berths and en-suite head. Moving further aft amidships is the full-beam master stateroom. The centerline Queen-sized bed is positioned perfectly to enjoy excellent views on either side through Aicon's signature 24-inch circular windows. To portside, is the gem of the 3 stateroom layout, the spacious master head with custom rain shower, raised porcelain sink, and head. While to starboard the large walk-in closet is unique to this layout.
