Summary/Description

A masterpiece of naval engineering, this Perini Navi-built sailing yacht boasts a pedigree design by Ron Holland, seamlessly blending exceptional ocean capabilities with opulent comfort and style.

Description

Information about the Builder:

Italian yacht builder Perini Navi is the world leader in the design and build of superyachts, with 61 yachts launched to date, including 58 sailing yachts and three motor yachts. Credited with a combination of technical brilliance and first class design, Perini Navi has always been in a class of its own. And so are many of their yachts.

The 1992 S/Y Tamarita is constructed from steel and aluminum , designed in-house and holds an INSB Commercial classification. It was delivered in December 1991 and has undergone regular maintenance since and various refits, including a complete repainting in 2017.

The boat can comfortably accommodate eight guests in four cabins, which include a master suite, a VIP suite, and two twin cabins. Additionally, four cabins are available for up to eight crew members.

The main salon features a lounge area with light wood paneling and comfortable seating, as well as a state-of-the-art entertainment center and a bar. Forward of the lounge is a dining area that can seat up to eight guests.

The open-plan layout is perfect for indoor-outdoor living and includes a swim platform, a large aft deck with built-in seating, and an extended flybridge with seating areas, a barbecue grill, and sun pads.

From a technical standpoint, this Perini Navi vessel is ketch rigged and equipped with a full wardrobe of North Sails, Bamar furling gear, and an Antal 200 electric winch in the main mast. It is powered by twin 640hp MTU diesel engines that allow for a maximum speed of 14 knots and a transatlantic range of 4,600 nautical miles at 12 knots, with a fuel capacity of 41,100 liters.
