Power Boat Guide Description

Power Boat Guide Description:

The Carver 405 Aft Cabin (called the Carver 406 Aft Cabin in 1999–2002) is a heavily built double cabin motor yacht with an appealing blend of space, comfort, and value. She's actually a repackaged version of Carver's earlier 370 Aft Cabin (1990–96) with slightly updated styling and a new integrated swim platform.

Below, the comfortable galley-down interior of the Carver 405/406 features a spacious main salon with an L-shaped Flexsteel sofa to port and entertainment center/dry bar opposite. A serving counter overlooks a well-lit galley with Corian counters, hardwood flooring, and full-size refrigerator. The master stateroom has an offset queen berth, storage lockers, and private head with stall shower. The forward stateroom has an offset double berth and private access to the day head.

A choice of light oak, cherry, or maple interior wood accents were available. Wing doors and a wet bar with ice maker are standard on the aft deck, and molded fiberglass steps provide easy access to the large swim platform. A good sea boat with more transom deadrise than most Carver hulls.
