Summary/Description

This 1986 Marinette 39 DC (Double Cabin) is spacious and has a relatively shallow draft for a 39-footer. She is a great vessel to cruise, or entertain family and friends. She is clean, well equipped and a terrific value at this price.

The Marinette 39 DC has a welded aluminum hull that reduces overall weight. The aluminum is strong and lightweight providing better fuel economy when cruising. This is a clean vessel that has had some important updates over the years. She will make a comfortable live aboard and an economic cruiser with the addition of your desired furnishings. At a price of $28,500.00 you won't find a better value than this 40 foot motor yacht.

Enter the aft deck from the swim platform through the opening in the stern railing, you'll find a full width aft deck with plenty of seating room.

Accessing the flybridge is done via a ladder from the aft deck. It features a separate helm station. The flybridge offers great views with room to relax and enjoy those views.

Enter the salon area through the enclosure doors and hatch. You'll find a large salon area with room for couches, tables and chairs. The hatches leading to the engine compartment are in the center of the new floor. The salon area is surrounded by windows allowing in lots of natural light.

Moving forward to port is storage cabinetry. Adjacent to the cabinets is the helm station configured with the operational gauges, switches, and electronics for operating the Marinette.

Continuing forward two steps down to port is a dinette lounge with storage drawers in both benches and the raised pedestal base.

Adjacent to starboard is the galley. The galley is equipped with a freezer/fridge, dual sink with faucet, three burner electric stove, and plenty of cabinet storage space.

Forward of the galley is the enclosed head. The head features a separate shower stall, vanity sink with faucet, vac-u-flush head, and plenty of cabinet space to stow toiletries. The head also features an ensuite entrance from the V-berth.

The forward is the V-berth has a solid door for privacy, a large dresser and hanging locker to port, large sleeping area, and drawer storage beneath the V-berth.

Aft from the salon and down 2 steps is the master stateroom with a large double berth and ensuite head with a stall shower. Plenty of storage cabinetry for all the necessary items for long term cruising. Call Bud Mueller at 248 343 0599 for more info and an appointment to view.
