Summary/Description

The Venture 34 Center Console is truly in a class of it's own and very well respected among serious fishing circles.

The Venture 34 Center Console is truly in a class of it's own and very well respected among serious fishing circles. From the practical layout to the fine details, she stands apart from the pack. All eyes gravitate to the hull's sleek lines whether it's pulling up to the dock or comfortably running past other boats in heavy conditions. The highly efficient hull design and 300-gallon fuel capacity enables you to reach those far away destinations with ease. The Venture 34 is a very capable, no nonsense center console intended for serious fishing or family boating with confidence. She has seating at the helm, forward to the console and transom. A large head compartment with large opening door, marine toilet, and holding tank is in the console.
