Summary/Description

Diable is a blend of sportiness and classic Riva elegance. Featuring a white hull and delivered as hull 9 of the diable range, Diable is a unique offering on the market. She has never been used by the current owner who has kept in dry storage since taking delivery in November 2023.

The cockpit furnishings include two big sun pads, one at the water's edge and another in the form of a chaise-longue. The central area contains two facing L-shaped sofas, with the port one acting as a dining area accommodating up to six people. All the external upholstery is stitched in an bespoke Riva turquoise. In addition, Diable features grey teak caulking throughout the cockpit and sidewalks and all the cockpit furniture is topped in mahogany.

The lower deck features two guest cabins arranged around an open space containing a galley and a dining area for versatility and convenience. The master cabin is midships and the VIP forward, each with their own bathroom. To starboard is a separate day head for convenience along with additional storage area to port which could be converted into an 3rd cabin.
