1994 Catalina 36

"Kara" is a tall sloop rig model with fin lead keel, spade rudder and keel stepped mast. She has the original and well performing Universal diesel engine. Her interior offers a 2 cabin layout including an aft cabin, a double U-shaped dinette that converts to a double berth, a single settee to starboard, head with shower to port and forward is the V-berth. Galley located aft to port with navigation station opposite.

This boat has been professionally serviced yearly for the past 10 years and is now for sale. If you are looking for a mid-sized cruiser to weekend or vacation cruise that is comfortable, offers reasonable performance, and is stable and predictable to handle, the Catalina 36 is a boat you should consider.
