Summary/Description

2003 Viking 48 Convertible Sportfish Yacht - Proven "fish-raiser" is SERIOUSLY FOR SALE!

The 2003 Viking 48 "Alive and Kicking" is a pedigree sportfishing vessel that has been captain maintained and shows extremely well. She is powered by upgraded MAN 1050hp engines to provide a fast cruise to and from the fishing grounds. This boat has been constantly upgraded her whole life and since landing in New Zealand, she has fished extremely well by the current owner and crew and proven to be a fish raiser. The seller has upgraded to a 55' Viking now and his 48' is seriously for sale.

For anyone that is looking to upgrade and enjoy a US built vessel to cruise and fish local waters, you will not be disappointed with this quality build. Let's also not forget the USD buying power for an offshore buyer to purchase.

Any questions you may have about "Alive and Kicking", please get in touch with Listing Broker directly anytime, as I know the vessel extremely well.

Vessel Walkthrough and Details

The "ALIVE AND KICKING" is a spacious 48' Viking. She has an extremely impressive 2 Stateroom and 2 head layout. Entering through the main salon, is a large L-Shaped sofa. The U-Shaped galley is forward of the sofa and has Sub-Zero Fridge/Freezers and a large countertop.

A large dinette is located to starboard with ample seating. Down 3 steps to port is the guest stateroom and features an en-suite head and shower. The Master Stateroom is located forward with an island queen berth and private head and shower.

The Cockpit is also a large working area with plenty of space to fish from. Upstairs, the Flybridge has all the state-of-the-art controls and electronics with her well laid out helm. Plenty of seating for all crew and guests.
