Summary/Description

Powered by triple Mercury 450 engines, featuring multiple lounging areas, and a spacious deck to relax by the water, the Intrepid 407 Nomad FE offers something special for every discerning type of boater.

Manufacturer Provided Description

Boasting a more traditional Intrepid design, the 407 Nomad FE is designed with a front entry into the head and includes many of the same features as the SE. It has a large fuel capacity, a superbly smooth, stable ride and an impressive amount of added space in the aft cockpit and beyond. Which is perfect if you're in the mood for lounging or ready for a spirited battle with the fish.
