2012 FALCON 125

Cruising on the Falcon 125 is one of those memorable experiences. This stunning yacht, designed and built by well-regarded Italian company Falcon Yachts, combines 21st-century style with more traditional quality construction.

Your journey begins in the spacious aft cockpit that features an inviting casual dining suite and several cushioned settees. A retractable bimini top unravels itself for days it is too sunny!

While you and your guests take in the scenic view, enjoy a few sundowners and a tasty al fresco dinner in the evening breeze.

Afterward, step inside the expansive main saloon that features a casual neutral-toned ambience, airy light wood furnishings, and natural light through the many windows. Enjoy some lively conversation while comfortably settled on the L-shaped seating suite. Or, take in your favorite movies or shows on the big-screen Apple satellite TV.

Just adjacent is the contemporary dining suite with service for eight, along with a galley that's a model of efficiency and neutral-toned style. This easily navigable area will be a hub of activity for afternoon hors d'oeuvres and sumptuous dinners fit for a true gourmand.

As your day winds down, settle into your impeccably appointed master cabin that offers plenty of space to stretch out, plus an impressive ensuite with a rainfall shower. Four other cabins will graciously accommodate a total of 10 lucky guests.

Luisamay's well-designed helm station combines light wood styling with an upgraded suite of electronics and plenty of room to work. You'll enjoy superb visibility while your sun-worshipping guests soak up the sunshine on the bow's sunpad just outside.

Perhaps best of all, Luisamay offers a cruising speed of 20 knots and a maximum speed of 25 knots. This very capable vessel can take you to your favorite cruising destinations in safety, pleasure and comfortable speed.

Speaking of sunbathing and socializing, Luisamay's versatile flybridge offers plenty of options for both pleasurable pursuits. With a roomy aft sunpad, and a covered dining area and adjacent food prep station, this inviting area is the perfect place to while away a sunny afternoon.

Piloting this impressive yacht from the flybridge is a satisfying experience in itself. With superb visibility, and a no-nonsense instrument panel at your fingertips, you'll enjoy putting this magnificent vessel through her paces.
