Vessel Walkthrough

Accommodations:

Stepping on board this boat at the swim platform, you will notice a swim-up stereo control system at the transom, offset from the integrated swim ladder. Stepping into the cockpit to port, you will see a large curved upholstered sofa and custom cockpit table to starboard. To port, at the base of the radar arch, there is a wet bar with refrigerator and storage compartment, with a companion seat forward. Opposite forward is the Helm with electronics with a double wide helm seat and flip up bolsters. Updated Garmin electronics are at the helm dash. Moving forward into the cabin, the curving stairs lead you into an open floor plan cabin space. The head is immediately to port. Forward to port is the galley with spacious countertop, stove top, sink, microwave, and refrigerator. Opposite from the galley is the dinette table, with a large couch and crescent shaped table. The master berth takes up the entire forward area with hanging closets on both sides of the bed, storage above the bed along the hull sides offers plenty of additional room. A hanging curtain stows neatly out of the way until privacy is desired in the master. The aft cabin space is a comfortable seating area until converted into a sleeping berth. The bow has new upholstery, to offer a large space to lay out in the sun.
