The Gemini 105Mc is the third version of a proven design from Tony Smith that began production in Annapolis in the 1990s. It's a spacious, stable platform for a fast-cruising couple. First build of the 105Mc was 2003 and the last build was 2011. Many improvements were made along the way.

- A quote from Sail Magazine: "The bottom line is: What do you want your cruising boat to do for you? If you're looking for a thin-water-friendly, level-sailing cruiser with loads of deck space, comfortable cabins, copious stowage, and a salon with 360-degree visibility that connects directly to the cockpit, this cruising catamaran is for you."
