Low Flight

Exceptional 2008 Coastal Craft 400 IPS

Low Flight is a stunning example of a Coastal Craft 400 IPS. Low Flight has been extremely well kept since new and is evident when viewing this beautiful yacht. With the flag blue hull and unmistakable Coastal Craft good looks, Low Flight leaves other yachts envious of the capability, engineering and striking good looks.

Low Flight was used by Coastal Craft as a "Show Boat" along the East Coast before a factory refit and owners taking to Seward Alaska. Low Flight has enjoyed cruising between Alaska and the Puget Sound over the last many years. Low Flight has been extensively equipped to take an owner where adventurer awaits.

Low Flight has an extremely flexible layout, with two cabins and a split head/shower. From the full enclosed cockpit with comfortable stairs to expansive flybridge deck, to the gorgeous salon with large U-shaped settee. Low Flight can accommodate 6, with 2 in each of the cabins and 2 on the salon settee when dropped into a berth.

Low Flight has been continually upgraded over the years and some of the wonderful upgrades are, but not limited to:

- IPS Drives Replaced 2017 (Port) 2018 (Starboard)
- Volvo Penta Upgrade Package
- Ultrasonic Anti-Fouling System
- Village Marine Watermaker
- Simrad Glass Bridge (factory completely redesigned dash during refit)
- New Custom Water Tank
- Karola Diesel Hydronic Heat

DO NOT miss the opportunity to own Low Flight. Whether you wish to explore up to Alaska or explore all the San Juan's have to offer, Low Flight can take you there safely and securely. Low Flight possesses the speed that opens cruising up to working professionals or folks just wishing to get to their destinations to begin to enjoy. With the ability to get out into the islands and back in just a few hours, it will leave a giant smile on your face without a doubt!

Low Flight is here in Anacortes and available for immediate showing. Inquire for a personal showing today.
