Windy Camira 40 SX

Twin Yamaha 450Hp

The WINDY 40 Camira SX is described as an elegant and sporty boat, sharing similar characteristics and specifications with its inboard engine version, the WINDY 40 Camira RS. The helmsman position has been redesigned for optimal use in the 21st century, featuring digital operation of the boat's systems through a multifunctional display. The boat retains the ergonomic and sporty feel characteristic of WINDY DNA.

A notable feature is the new full-beam T-top with an integrated sunroof, providing excellent protection from the elements and enhancing the overall experience for WINDY owners. The Camira SX is powered by Yamaha or Mercury, promising unparalleled performance, seakeeping, build quality, and the level of excellence expected by WINDY's discerning clients.
