Overview

The 59 Fairline Squadron can be boarded via a synthetic teak-laid swim platform capable of storing a tender or jet ski. Steps to port lead to the teak-laid aft deck. A bench settee conceals ladder access to the lazarette and crew quarters below.

Enter the salon through stainless steel framed sliding glass doors. The salon is furnished with leather settees to both port and starboard, a cherry coffee table with walnut burl inlay, flat screen TV plus bar storage and ice maker. A circular teak and stainless steel stairway to port leads to the flybridge. The full galley is opposite with double stainless steel sink, electric stove, microwave and Galley Maid oven. Fully forward to starboard is the helm station and a C-shaped settee that can seat up to 6 and dining table is opposite.

Below deck are 2 guest cabins each with twin berths while the master is located in the bow with a centerline queen berth with en suite head and shower. The guest cabins share a head w/shower that is accessed from the companionway.

11/2020 Aft Deck and swim platform have been recovered with Nu-Teak covering.
