Summary/Description

If you are looking for the perfect trawler with a good turn of speed, great handling and incredible build quality, this is your boat.

She truly is in "Better than New" condition and her lines command the same respect as a Nordic Tug, but at a much lower price point. She is held in a clean LLC and has very low engine hours - She is all dialed in and raring to go anywhere you want to take her. The current owner's experience and meticulous attention to detail shines through everywhere, from the upgraded mechanical and electrical components and pristine engine room to the immaculately kept fully enclosed canvas flybridge with polycarbonate windows, bow and stern thrusters and dinghy davits.
