Yacht Description

SEASEID was designed to be reflective of the owners minimalist and tailored taste. There are a handful of finishes, textures, and fabrics that are repeated throughout the yacht. All are very neutral palette of grays, pale taupes, and several shades of white. Combined, they create a harmonious, organic, and soothing interior.

Main Salon and Dining

Full beam salon with large TV/entertainment center. Large deep sectional sofa with a glass and taupe veneer cocktail table. Sculptural wood frame chair with ottoman aft. Lacquer walls and ceiling panels with driftwood floor planks. A few complimentary contrast cabinets in taupe wood strategically placed. Plush wool area rug and cashmere throw pillows. Square dining table with Italian all leather gray chairs. Sheer linen roman shades gently diffuse the light.

- Walls - Lacquer paint/panel cabinets - light gray
- Freestanding cabinets - taupe/walnut engineered veneer
- Headliner and cabinets - Snow White lacquer paint
- Hardware and lights - Square / Brush nickel
- Glass and stainless-steel stair enclosure to master stateroom
- Custom square dining table - 57" X 57"

Galley and Lower Helm

The galley doubles as the inside helm when needed. The settee is long enough for someone to lie down while on anchor watch. There is a rectangular settee across the tailored functional island. The cooktop is highlighted by the stainless-steel drop down hood and 1' X 1 1/2" stainless-steel backsplash. There is a pantograph door to the side deck, as well as interior stairs to the deck above.

- Flooring - Porcelanosa - Oxford Acero

- Cabinets - combination of lacquer and gray veneer
- Countertops - Silestone-Blanco Maple with 1 1/2"
- Broan hood
- Sub-Zero refrigerator with drawers
- GE tall refrigerator
- Franke sink
- Blanco faucet
- GE cooktop and oven
- Fisher Paykal dishwasher

Staterooms Description

There are stairs leading down from the lower helm to three of the four ensuite staterooms: VIP forward, VIP starboard, port cabin with twin berths that convert to a queen. Clever space planning and the use of low cabinetry make these guest cabins feel truly spacious. The décor, featuring shades of white, taupe and light gray, along with crisp white linens, and large port holes create a clean bright ambiance. The LED lighting works effectively with the subtle color palette.

Master Stateroom

The Owner's stateroom is full-beam, with a long bench seat opposite the berth. The head has twin sinks and a large shower with textured tile. Even though the Owner's accommodations are larger than the guest cabins, they are furnished in the same minimalistic style, accented by white Carrera marble countertops rather than more exotic stonework. The master stateroom looks like a high-end Tribeca hotel, with uncluttered Euro-style décor. The soft neutral tones maximize the natural light from the hullside windows.

The master head features Kohler sinks and a walk-in shower.

Crew Quarters

The crew quarters are located in the transom area and are laid out with as much care as the guest accommodations. The captain has a double berth cabin with ensuite head. The bunk room for two has a second head.

Flybridge

The flybridge helm is raised for optimal visibility. There are two comfortable settees for guests. Down two steps is a granite bar with refrigerator and grill, and a large dining table that seats 18 people. The deck can be air conditioned all the way back to the end of the hard top. Behind the dining and bar are a sun lounge and a 6-person superyacht hot tub.

The enormous boat deck houses an AB RIB tender and the davit. There's still room for kayaks and paddleboards.

Engine Room

When entering the engine room, you are greeted by the beautiful backlit Hargrave insignia on the door. The engine room has 7'5" headroom, is air conditioned, and has a CCTV system. There is ample space to service the twin Caterpillar C-32 diesels, which give SEASEID a top speed of 24 knots, cruising at 18 knots.
