Step inside the cockpit and there's bench seat aft that folds away for those days you plan on fishing. Across from the fold away bench seat is a double seat. Located to starboard is the ever important wet bar. Just forward of the wet bar is the helm with a layout like no others. Everything is easily within reach and perfectly laid out. Across from the captain on the starboard side is more seating that converts to a lounger. Just a few steps down and you'll find ample head room in the cabin. Mid-ship, you'll find a single berth.
