Summary/Description

2001 Albemarle 410 Express Fisherman

The 410 XF Express Fisherman gives great Performance, First-Rate accommodations, and hardcore functionality. Albemarle has succeeded in building a boat that gives it all in this model. You not only get a well laid out bridge and cockpit arrangement, but a spacious saloon, ample storage and comfort through out the boat. The attention to details is shown from the Corian countertops to the hydraulics that raise the entire bridge deck allowing access to the engine. The 410 is stable as a rock even in a tight turn, wide open, with a full tower in the wind. This Albemarle boat should fill your serious fishing requirements with great performance. The boat was Re-Powered with C12 Cats in 2005, 1,950 hours currently. 1,000 Hour service recently done. Call listing broker to schedule a showing today!

Manufacturer Provided Description

The Albemarle 410 Express Fisherman is a sight to behold. Striking lines, a dramatic Carolina-Style flare, and unadulterated fishing systems adorn the exterior. Elegant refinements and comfortable appointments grace the cabin. And in her engine room, twin Cats supply speed and responsiveness, The 410 has a large cockpit equipped with a standard livewell, freezer, ice / bait cooler, tackle storage, oversized fishboxes, and transom door. Two steps up lead into the large helm area with a centered dash and wheel for maximum visibility and control. Wrap-Around bench seating on both sides frames the helm and provides ample room for long runs out.
