ACCOMMODATIONS

There are a total of five guest cabins including the main deck full beam master cabin. Lower deck has four guest cabins with two full size berths and two twin cabins, each with ensuite heads, all with showers.

LOWER DECK

Two aft guest cabins are full size berths with ensuite heads with showers, two hanging closets and 32" tv's. Forward lower deck cabins have twin berths have ensuite heads with showers, one hanging closet and 28" tv's. All four cabin have oversized glass inserts in the hull offering expensive views.

MAIN DECK

The main deck is well thought out being entirely on one level from the pool to master cabin without any steps. On port and starboard side of the pool are drop down balconies making the views expansive and unobstructed. Moving forward from the pool there is a custom bar to port with ice maker and refrigerator, on starboard side is a large day lounge. A custom fire pit was installed in front of the pool.

FRASER

Main saloon is entered through large curved electric opening glass doors. In the saloon are two curved shaped sofa's and forward of that is the dining area for ten guests. Windows in the dining area are floor to ceiling.

Moving forward on the starboard side brings you to the main deck guest lobby with dayhead on starboard, to port are stairs leading to lower deck guest cabins and up to the bridge deck. Also in the lobby is a crew service door which leads to the galley and crew quarters. Forward beyond the main deck lobby you enter the master cabin.

On port side main deck forward of the dining room is the service pantry and galley. From the galley there's access to the crew quarters and also main deck foyer. A dumb waiter in the pantry services the bridge deck and sundeck.

OWNER'S STATEROOM

Full beam on main deck with extra large windows on both port and starboard side. Port side is a makeup vanity. Large full beam head with his and two washbasins and shower. Owners cabin has been upgraded with parquet flooring.

BRIDGE DECK

Bridge Deck is accessed by either port or starboard side main deck stair or via the internal staircase. The aft outdoor section has teak covered decks, lounging space with large sofa across the aft area. More than half the area outdoor area is protected from the sun and elements.

Moving forward you pass through two large electric floor to ceiling glass sliding doors. Entering the sky lounge you will see the floors are upgraded with parquet floor flooring. To port is the L-shaped sofa, forward on port side is a drinks refrigerator, wine cellar and access to the dumbwaiter. On centre is a upgraded 55" TV. To starboard is a casual dining area/game/worktable with seating.

Moving forward along the starboard side is the foyer with stairs leading down to the lower deck. On the forward end of the foyer is a bridge deck day head. The foyer also gives access to the Captain's cabin.

Captain's Cabin on bridge deck offers a single berth, full ensuite head and hanging locker

The Bridge offers a work desk on starboard side and large sofa aft of the helm. Door on the port side give access to the Portuguese bridge. There are exterior docking wing stations on both port and starboard side of the bridge.

FRASER

Going outside from the bridge to the bow there is sofa seating in front of the bridge with cocktail table and further forward is a large sunbathing pad to accommodate four people.

SUN DECK

Sundeck is access from the starboard side bridge deck. Forward is a large sun pad, centre and under the hardtop is the dining table for ten people. Port side is a buffet with BBQ grill, sink and access to the dumb waiter. After area features a full-service bar with ice maker, drinks fridge, sink and three bar stools. This area has removeable sail sunshades above.

CREW ACCOMODATION

Crew area is accessed from the main deck galley, down a set of stairs going froward. Crew accommodations are forward of the lower guest cabins. At the bottom of the stairs on port side is the crew dinning area with 32" TV, and two sets of washer and dryers. To starboard across from the crew dining area is a twin crew cabin with ensuite head. Forward are two more twin crew cabins on port and starboard with ensuite heads,
