Summary/Description

Maybe the most famous German Frers design which was built for the designer as his family yacht. Now completely and lovingly rebuilt/refitted over the last 8 years including every system, component and detail aboard.

Pure, classic design. A beautiful sight to behold, sailing yacht HEROINA is a cold-molded mahogany classic designed and built by German Frers in 1993 to be his own family yacht.

As maybe the most famous German Frers design, she reflects the mind of a great and ambitious architect who seeks comfort and ease of use.

HEROINA is sleek and beautiful, as well as an easy enough to handle true performer. This modern classic yacht features open-deck volume and just reasonable-sized staterooms.

HEROINA has been completely and lovingly rebuilt/refitted over the last 8 years including every system, component, and detail aboard. She is an absolute pleasure to sail and the most beautiful sailing yacht in any harbor!

COMMENTS

Designed by German Frers as a personal yacht for family cruising and refitted under several ownerships culminating with the current owner who purchased HEROINA in 2011 and has rebuilt and upgraded the yacht to standards that properly reflect the historical pedigree of this lovely yacht. She has been lavished with stem to stern refitting including all structural elements, new teak decks, repainted completely, new Southern Spars carbon mast and furling boom, new rigging, new North 3Di sails, new electronics and electrical system, new batteries, generator and main engine. HEROINA has been tastefully redecorated to enhance her open plan interior while allowing for 3 private staterooms. A true nautical work of art and head turning yacht is any port of call.
