ACCOMMODATIONS

OVERVIEW:

GAMECHANGER has an Ice Blue painted hull and white superstructure, with teak flooring in the cockpit and non-skid through the side decks and bow. The cockpit has a Bluewater fighting chair with rocket launcher, four gunwale rod holders, 6 rod holders on the aft lower legs, transom door with gate, in-deck fish box, live well, eight rod holders on after flybridge rail and electric teaser reels. There is an added Palm Beach Towers full tuna tower, Pipe Welders outriggers and center rigger.

An abundance use of granite, Amtico, and teak combined with a pleasing neutral décor highlights the interior. The salon area has a U-shaped couch and hi-low table with hinged leaves for dining to port. To starboard is the upper electrical panel, concealed bottle and glass storage, concealed AV components and clear cube ice maker. Forward to starboard is a comfortable dinette with teak table and flat screen TV above.

Opposite the dinette is a fully equipped galley, featuring granite countertops, four SubZero refrigerator drawers, two SubZero freezer drawers, four-burner flush mount cooktop, stainless steel sink, trash compactor, microwave/ convection oven, and ample door, drawer, and slide out storage.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

GAMECHANGER can accommodate eight guests in four staterooms, a master suite, queen stateroom and two twin bunk cabins located through the companionway forward of the galley.

FRASER

The Master suite features a queen berth with under-bed storage and a mirrored headboard. There are additional drawers and two full-length closets built into the port side of the cabin for ample storage. A private ensuite is attached to the suite.

The forward stateroom can sleep two guests on the centerline queen berth with a private head. On the starboard side of the lower companion way are two staterooms, each with upper and lower berths. Adjacent is the third head and serves as the day head.

The washer/dryer is in the companionway.
