Manufacturer Provided Description

The Wellcraft 290 Coastal provides exceptional cruiser-style cabin amenities with all the requirements needed for serious weekend fishing. The comfortable helm has easy-to-read gauges, seats two with an adjustable operator seat, and has beverage holders close at hand. Anglers will appreciate the well-equipped transom with plenty of room for hauling in fish and an ample-sized fish locker for storage. The bait prep area is easily accessible and even easier to clean. On the starboard, there's a large, lighted livewell with a viewing window that can easily be reached by everyone on board. The large forward cabin has twin pilot berths and a dinette that converts to a double berth in seconds. The midcabin comfortably sleeps two.
