Accommodations & Walkthrough

Starting at the bow, is the large & comfy Vee Berth. A large overhead hatch with an exhaust fan keeps the air moving and keeps you cool. The cabin has good storage with Shelves on both hull sides, a dressing chair on starboard side of entry with a cubby under and a cabinet on port of entry.

The Saloon follows with facing settees and a large center-line table with drop leaves allowing up to 6 to eat comfortably. Shelves above each of the settees provides good space for "stuff".

The L-shaped Galley is aft on starboard and featuring a 2-burner Stove & Oven, a SS Sink, refrigerator and microwave. Storage is built in everywhere.

Across on port is the Nav Station with nice sized Chart Table and Desk. The Electric Panel is within easy reach above the table.

Aft of the Nav Station is the large Head featuring a Walk In Shower, full sized commode and sink with medicine cabinet.

The private Quarter Berth is aft of the Galley. It's Berth is large enough for an adult couple with ample storage. The ventilation is excellent and includes a hatch that opens into the cockpit serving as an escape route.

Throughout the 349, a combination of opening hatches, fixed and opening ports, Lights and Receptacles really gives ZigZag a light and airy feel.

The centerline Companionway has three steps up into the big cockpit with plenty of room for your guests and crew whether sailing, relaxing or napping. There is a large centerline table with drop-down leaves for pleasurable meals and entertaining.

Helm Stations on Port & Starboard give great visibility and lots of control to your sailing.

Finally, a large drop-down transom becomes a swim platform with telescoping ladder that easily gets crew and guests in and out of the cockpit.

ZigZag is a fantastically well-designed boat that deserves to be seen.
