An impressive project team designed this beautiful vessel: naval engineering and hull featured by Ibrahim Karats, Naval Architect & Marine Eng from Istanbul; General concept and interior design by Nauta Design in Milan.

Sailing Nour was built by Evadne Yachts LTD, the well-known Turkish shipyard in Tuzla, Black Sea.

Hull built in steel, superstructure in aluminium. Main and mizzen masts built in aluminium by Marechal, France.

Both deck and interiors have been realized using only prestigious woods and first-rate quality materials. Sailing Nour is designed to offer luxury stay on board, can accommodate 9 guests, has two generous size queen cabins, two double cabins, one of this with a third upper bed. Each cabin with private bathroom.

On main deck a spacious saloon with sofas, a table which comfortably seats 10 guests, perfect for dining or just relaxing, with bar and writing desk.

The outside features a dining table for 10, the pilot station, comfortable sofas and many sun mattresses. Crew quarter offers one captain cabin, one hostess cabin and two crew cabins, kitchen, laundry, crew mess and Nav-station.
