Summary/Description

2006 Formula 400 Super Sport – a speed and luxury combine, defining a remarkable boating experience.

We are introducing a 2006 Formula 400 Super Sport – a speed and luxury combine, defining a remarkable boating experience. This vessel comes complete with a trailer, adding extra convenience to your adventures.

Powered by robust engines, the Formula 400 Super Sport is built for speed and agility, catering to both cruising and racing enthusiasts. It now boasts new outdrives and bellows, along with four brand-new props, representing a substantial investment of $30,000. The old outdrives, and props are included as valuable spares.

The interior is thoughtfully designed for both practicality and comfort. The cabin offers ample seating and a well-equipped galley for convenient onboard living. You'll find a cozy forward berth, perfect for relaxation after a day of activities.

The cockpit is well-suited for socializing, featuring generous seating and a functional layout. The helm is equipped with a complete set of technology for seamless navigation.

Beyond its impressive performance, the Formula 400 Super Sport showcases a stylish exterior blending performance and sophistication.

This boat includes a range of new Volvo Penta Genuine spare parts. Other valuable additions include the alternator, starter, sea water pump, all belts (two sets), and even a spare power steering pump. Redundant steering and lines further contribute to the boat's reliability.

For those who appreciate the combination of performance, luxury, and practicality, the 2006 Formula 400 Super Sport promises an unparalleled boating journey, now with added convenience and reliability.

Factory Description

When the Formula 400 Super Sport was introduced in May of 1998 it earned the coveted "Boat of the Year" award from Boating Magazine and most recently a Product Excellence award as Sport Cruiser of the year from Powerboat Magazine! The 400 SS has redefined the high-performance express cruiser, and its famous FAS³TECH® hull, customized for the 400 SS, boasts a stable, dry ride with the agility of a true performer and high top speed providing captain and crew with an exciting ride.

Formula designs and delivers exactly what day boaters and weekenders want, all-around good times with family and friends. Formula's emphasis on cockpit size and versatility creates more space for everyone with generous seating shaped for comfort. The aft cockpit lounge, complete with a convertible table, is the gathering place for fun-loving groups, and the integrated wet bar is always ready to serve refreshments!
