Description

The 2007 Sea Ray 340 Sundancer is a stylish and luxurious express cruiser designed for those who want a boat that offers both performance and comfort on the water. It's 37 feet long and has a well-appointed interior and exterior.

On the outside, the 340 Sundancer has a sleek profile with a unique radar arch and smooth lines. The hull design not only adds to the boat's looks but also improves its performance and stability on the water. The roomy cockpit is perfect for entertaining, featuring plenty of seating, a wet bar, and a helm station equipped with modern navigation and control systems.

Inside the cabin, you'll discover a well-thought-out interior that maximizes space and comfort. The salon includes a convertible dinette, a fully equipped galley with modern appliances, and a well-appointed head with a shower. The forward master stateroom offers a cozy retreat with a double berth, storage cabinets, and natural light from the overhead hatch.

With twin inboard engines propelling it, the Sea Ray 340 Sundancer delivers impressive performance for cruising and weekend getaways. Its carefully crafted design, high-end amenities, and meticulous attention to detail make this 2007 model a popular choice for boaters seeking a combination of elegance and functionality on the water.
