Summary/Description

"RETOX" is a very well maintained Beneteau Oceanis 41 that is new to the market.

Never has the level of seakeeping and the comfortable lifestyle on board been so great. The continuous chine allows for an extra-wide cockpit, reinforces stability and increases performance. - Manufacturer comment

The Beneteau Oceanis 41 was a very successful model from its introduction, featuring a hard chine running the length of the hull for stability and interior volume. The interior looks and feels like a bigger boat, and the O 41 is an excellent performer in any conditions. RETOX is a very well-maintained boat, and it's ready to take its next owner to new horizons and adventures.
