Summary/Description

Without a doubt, Bruce Roberts is the king of the stock plan designers. There are a number of reasons for this. Roberts' designs are always beautifully presented by the draughtsman.

Without a doubt, Bruce Roberts is the king of the stock plan designers. There are a number of reasons for this. Roberts' designs are always beautifully presented by the draughtsman. They are profusely detailed and leave very little for the amateur builder's imagination. This is definitely a positive statement. Lastly, Roberts' boat plans cover a wide variety of sizes and types of yachts. There is something for everyone. (Roberts Yacht Design)

This Bruce Roberts 44 is a single owner vessel that has undergone many recent updates and upgrades to make it an unbeatable package! Her steel hull center cockpit design allows for tons of space on and below deck which makes her unique in today's market. The bimini and dodger have just been replaced, as well as gauges and electronics! This is truly one-of-a-kind and represents a rare opportunity to get into a sail ready vessel of this size and condition! Book your private showing today!
