Summary/Description

A superb bluewater cruising catamaran built by one of the most well renowned yards for this type of boat offering a well-equipped layout with multiple bedrooms and bathrooms.

The cockpit features a large table seating 8 and open directly through a large sliding door on the same level to the saloon and the galley with a panoramic view through wrap around windows. This boat will take you in considerable style, security and comfort wherever you want to go. Built with long term cruising in mind she is built to last with everything well-constructed and heavy deck gear throughout, she is capable of proving all the comfort you want from a cruising catamaran with good sailing performance to match.

Overview

Accommodations

The owner's cabin, aft in the starboard hull, has the berth mounted across the boat, beneath the molding, which provides the raised steering platform. The furniture is not bonded to the hull, which provides easy access to the electronics and equipment.

The galley is wide, set near the sliding door for easy access to the cockpit. The 180L fridge is excellent, with a piano-style top-loading lid and sliding mesh trays so you can find what you want without rummaging. The integral freezer holds 30L, and an extra 90L independent freezer has been installed. The chart table with excellent outside view is facing forward.

The helmsman's seat holds three, and the raised helm position provides excellent view on all four corners. All the winches and controls are led here for easy single-handing. Behind the helm is a sun bed. Alongside it, is a seating and storage bench. The cockpit is spacious with a large table sitting easily eight.
