Summary/Description

The Nonsuch is the inspiration of Gordon Fisher, who with yacht designer Mark Ellis approached George Hinterhoeller to build a comfortable cruising boat. This idea has produced over 950 boats from 22' to 36' that are enjoyed today by sailors of all types. Nonsuch was designed on the premise of simpl

Her unstayed mast is stepped in the bow. With her newer outboard and only one sail, the Nonsuch 22 is simply the easiest and most fun boat to sail in its size range. The spacious cabin has two single berths which can be converted into a larger sleeping area that very comfortable sleeps two. The cockpit easily holds four adults. She also boasts a galley and a fully enclosed head. She even has a newer Quantum mainsail that is in excellent condition.

If you would like to go sailing...simple sailing and fun, this is a boat you should consider. She is built to the same high quality standards that Hinterhoeller Yachts is famous for in the larger Nonsuch, just in a down-sized version.
