The Freedom 275 (introduced in 2006 as the Tournament) has been an instant success since the beginning. An extremely versatile family boat. Suited for fishing, wakeboarding, afternoon picnics and sunset cruises. This boat offers expanded seating in the bow, seating in the stern and lounge seating next to the helm. Should you need open space for fishing? no problem, seats fold up to open the boat up for maneuverability. Lots of amenities too, prep station with fresh water for lunch, snacks or use it as a bait area.

The hull is a collaboration with the famous C. Raymond Hunt Associates, so you are assured of a soft stable ride. Combined with the Grady- White build quality and you have yourself a vessel that will keep you happy for years to come.
