Summary/Description

ANYTIME is one of the popular Hinckley Bermuda 40 MK III yawls with a keel-centerboard hull configuration.

These beautiful Classics offer graceful sheer lines, wide side decks and long overhangs. They are probably one of the most attractive production sailboats ever conceived. ANYTIME is hull # 113 of the 203 built, the last hull believed to be finished in 1991. The MK III model was introduced in 1972 and added more sail area by increasing the height of the mast by 4', and moving the mast aft by 21". More ballast was added to her external lead keel. These cruising vessels are both coastal and bluewater capable, ideal for shoal draft areas. ANYTIME has an extensive list of extras and spares, etc. Her caring and knowledgeable owner purchased her in 2004. He has sailed her successfully between the Chesapeake and Maine, living aboard many summers, and also Captaining her for day charters in Martha's Vineyard. We shall be pleased to get you aboard.
